"WE PRESS THE BUTTON."

What an Eye Witness Saw in a Republican Convention.

At the Craven county republican convention, held in this city a few weeks ago for the purpose of nominating a county ticket, there was everywhere, in all the different stages of the proceedings, a noticeable sense of triumph among the negro delegates, who greatly outnumbered the whites. The negro felt his superiority in numbers, and in number he recognized the fact of power to dictate to his white republican brother.

This sense of superiority was well shown and expressed in the really notable speech of the convention, made by the assistant in the register of deeds office, a colored man by the name of Wetherington.

This office-holder showed a persistence in advocating the negro for every office that was worthy of his race, and his every speech, and they were numerous, were hot enough for the most pronounced negro in the convention who was seeking for office. In his speech Wetherington, rising to the time and occasion, was eloquent in depicting the progress of the negro getting office, and finally in a burst of triumph he exclaimed, with dramatic action suited to express each sentence, "In 1896, we pressed the button and behold John B. Willis, register of deeds, came forth! Again we press the button and Robert Moseley, county commissioner, came forth! We pressed the button and deputy sheriffs came forth! We pressed the button and magistrates came forth!"

"And now in this convention we have again pressed the button, and behold C. C. Roach, for county treasurer, is before us, what shall the future give to us?"

Truly this picture painting of the negro possibilities, as an office-holder, must have been pleasing to white republicans of Craven county, who were limited to two nominations, the sheriff's and clerk of court's, and these were only given by the candidates pledging to fill every position in their offices with negroes.

It is no surprise that white republicans are alarmed over their position. Today it is untenable so far as office getting goes, for the negro is a persevering "button pusher," and the white office-seeker in the republican party, while today he may be granted a few favors, in way of office, by his friend, the negro, yet the "button pushing" clearly indicates that he cannot much longer expect to be granted any favors.

"We press the button and behold"—how long must this be endured? Can even republicans, white republicans, continue to place themselves under the political domination of the negro?—Newbern Journal.

Students for Trinity.

Twenty-one students for Trinity College passed through Greensboro today enroute to Durham, as follows: W. R. Odell, Jr., and T. S. Odell, and two Smith brothers, of Concord; P. H. Hanes, Jr., W. M. Hanes, Henry Dwire, Leo Vaughn, and Mr. Dix, of Winston; Prof. S. W. Sparger, Mt. Airy; W. K. Boyd, Weaverville; Mr. Smithdeal, Advance; Mr. Abbott, Forsyth county; Mr. Montgomery, Mexico; Mr. Blakeney, Monroe; Mr. Webb, Trinity; Mr. Mims, Little Rock, Ark; Mr. Cranford, Randolph county; R. L. Ellington, Reidsville; Mr. Luck, Asheboro.

Tomorrow is the opening day of the fall term of Trinity College and the prospects are it will be the largest opening in the history of the institution. It is learned that more are coming from the east than from the western part of the state.

THE EIGHTH OHIO BREAK CAMP

Shafter Having Difficulty With Desertions—Cervera Would Like to Remain, but Must Go Home.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Camp Wikoff, Sept. 6.—The larger part of the Eighth Ohio volunteer infantry, numbering one thousand, under Col. Hard, broke camp this morning and marched from the encampment fort at Pond Plain to the railroad. They took with them all their equipment except the tents and a few articles of minor importance belonging to the government. They left a hundred sick and convalescent behind in the hospital.

When the men boarded the train it was discovered that no provision had been made for transportation. After they reached New York there was a rapid exchange of telegrams with the authorities at Washington, which had no result up to noon.

CERVERA AT NORFOLK.

Norfolk, Sept. 6.—Admiral Cervera arrived here this morning and was met by Dr. Cleborne, medical director of the naval hospital. The Spanish admiral is here to look after the transportation of the Spaniards to New York and from thence to Spain. There are forty-four men in the hospital, nearly all of whom are convalescent. The admiral said he wished to thank the Americans for their kindness to himself and to the Spanish soldiers and marines; that although he would like to remain here his duty called him to Spain and that he will soon sail for home.

THE COMPLAINT ANSWERED.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Considerable complaint has reached the war department from various sources because the volunteers in Cuba did not receive their pay. This is explained by the government by saying that the colonels of fifteen regiments requested the paymaster general to withhold the money due the troops until they should return to the United States; otherwise the men would have been paid.

TROOPS FROM PORTO RICO.

New York, Sept. 6.—The transport Chester with General Schwan and Haines and part of General Miles' Porto Rican army arrived this afternoon from Ponce. The troops on board are the Fourth Pennsylvania volunteers who will leave immediately for Mount Gretna where they will be mustered out.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 6, '98.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of aldermen was held last night in the mayor's office and several ordinances were passed, but as we could not see the minutes today we cannot give a detailed account of the business transacted. Among the new ordinances passed were two that we, in behalf of the many citizens interested, desire to thank the board for. The Telegram and Enterprise have spoken many times about the many hitching posts on Main street that are a nuisance in the true sense of the word. We beg to inform our readers that all hitching posts on Main street between English street and Manchester avenue will be removed immediately. Another ordinance passed was one that we alone made particular mention of a few weeks since as a nuisance that could by no means benefit anyone and on the other hand damage many. That is the dumping of all old rubbish of every description into the street. This will be stopped immediately we are glad to state. We are very confident that the bicyclists of the city will be far more grateful to our board of aldermen for the passing of this ordinance than for any law they have as yet enacted.

Miss Jennie Webb and Eleanor Stanback, of Trinity, passed through this morning enroute to Greensboro to enter G. F. College.

Miss Mary Ferree, of Randleman, passed through today enroute to G. F. College.

Miss Ida Alexander left today for Baltimore to buy her fall stock of millinery.

R. L. Pickett is confined to his room at Jarrell's hotel threatened with fever.

Mrs. Nannie W. Tardy who has been acting as housekeeper at Jarrell's hotel left this morning for Danville, Va.

U. S. Marshal Millikan was in the city this morning on business.

A. J. Dodamead went to Greensboro on the noon train on business.

About seventy men were very busy for about 70 minutes a day or two ago trying to raise a horse upon its feet, that had been driven 70 miles the day before, that was not worth 70 cents. Only a few days since a horse owned by J. C. Welch was driven to death by a party of this place. These two cases cause us to wonder why the law forbidding cruelty to animals is not enforced, or where are the white ribbon people.

C. B. Hayworth is building several new houses on South Hamilton street, which is now being extended. Mr. H. is also going to open a street immediately south of his residence, running east and west, between Main and the extension of Hamilton street.

THE NEWLY CROWNED QUEEN

Wilhelmina Is Now Queen of The Netherlands.

THE DAUGHTER OF KING WILLIAM

Brilliant and Impressive Ceremony of the Coronation—The Diadem of Topaz and Diamonds.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Amsterdam, Sept. 6.—Wilhelmina, daughter of the late King William III, was today crowned queen of the Netherlands. The ceremony of placing the crown upon the head of the girl sovereign was performed in Nieuwe Kerk, Amsterdam's chief cathedral.

Within a few moments after the diadem was set upon the fair hair of the new queen six thousand white pigeons were liberated at the cathedral doors to bear the tidings of the coronation to every part of the low countries.

The coronation robe was of pink satin edged with point lace and ermine. The royal cloak was also ermine. The diadem placed upon her head was of topaz and diamonds.

One-fifth of the population of Holland was here today, rejoicing throughout the ceremonies. The young queen bore herself with admirable self-possession though she was much affected and impressed.

STUNG TO DEATH.

John Reed, an Aged Citizen, Dies From Bee Stings.

Sunday afternoon John Reed, an aged citizen of Buncombe, living on Bull creek, near the Asheville Farm school, was stung to death by bees.

A calf knocked over a bee hive in Mr. Reed's yard and while he was attempting to set it up the bees covered his face and hands completely, inflicting so many stings that he died in a very short time from the effects.

Mr. Reed was a brother of Judge J. E. Reed, of Asheville, and was 63 years old.

The funeral service will occur tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at Berea church.—Asheville Citizen.

MR. BOONE RESIGNS.

Ill Health Compels Him to Withdraw From The Race.

Mr. R. B. Boone, of Durham, the democratic nominee for solicitor in the Fifth Judicial district has written the following letter which speaks for itself:

Chase City, Va., Sept. 1, 1898
Mr. J. S. Manning, Chairman of the Judicial Committee, Durham, N. C.:
Dear Sir: Appreciating to the highest degree the honor of the nomination by the democratic party for the office of solicitor of the Fifth district, and realizing the utmost importance of a thorough canvass of the district, and my own physical inability to make it, I now, through you resign the nomination with the greatest regret. The office requires for the performance of its duties considerable physical strength. I am now at Chase City to get rest and recuperate my strength. The few speeches I have made convince me of my physical inability to go further in the canvass and cast a doubt in my mind of my strength to perform the duties of the office if elected.

Assuring you and the committee of my highest regards, I remain,
Yours faithfully,
R. B. Boone.

The committee will meet on Friday of this week to take action in regard to the matter.

The death of Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, is looked for at any time. The life of a great statesman is swinging in the balance and when he dies he will be accorded a place in the glorious Pantheon of America's immortal sons.

Col. Julian S. Carr is chairman of Durham county democratic committee. He is able and popular and his acceptance of the position augurs success for the democratic ticket in that county. Col. Carr does not do things by halves, and he will put his whole energy into the fight for the success of the movement for good government.

The intense heat of the past two or three days has caused many deaths and many more prostrations in New York and other northern cities. Yet people up there talk of the terrible heat down south, when the fact is we have not heard of a single death in any southern town or city from sunstroke this summer. After all, Dixie is the best land under the star-decked dome of blue.

It is to be regretted that R. B. Boone, Esq., democratic candidate for solicitor in this district, has found it necessary, on account of ill health, to resign. He is now at Chase City, Va., recuperating. The executive committee will meet in Durham next Friday to consider his resignation and name his successor. Let the committee make no mistake in the selection of a candidate.

The death of Dr. J. O. Wilcox, which occurred at his home in Ashe county yesterday, removes a candidate from the congressional race in the Eighth district. Dr. Wilcox was the nominee of the bolting republicans, or insurgents, as they are called, and had he lived would have made the Eighth district a hot place for Linney, and the eighth of November a warm day for the "Bull of the Brushies."

The why and the wherefore of the turn of affairs in regard to mustering out North Carolina troops would make interesting reading for many people. Late last week the news came that the Second North Carolina volunteer regiment was to be ordered to Raleigh to be mustered out. This, we believe, was on Friday, and Sunday morning's papers announced that the order had been countermanded and that the First regiment would be mustered out and that the Second and Third (the latter colored) would be retained in the service of the United States. Behind all this there is shrewd game of politics being played. As is unusual, too, in republican management of things the wishes of the men who are the most deeply interested are not considered as of any consequence—they cut no ice.

After several weeks of publicity and severe comment in many newspapers, there is an effort being made to discredit the report concerning Judge Adams' charge to the grand jury at the superior court of Columbus county. It is passing strange that if the judge was misquoted in so grave a matter that he and his friends did not take prompt steps to set the matter right. However badly he was misquoted or misinterpreted, it will be hard to change the popular verdict after waiting so long.

SOUTHERN'S SHORT LINE.

From Danville to Gastonia is Said to Be in Contemplation.

It has been talked for some time that the Southern Railway would in the near future build a short line from Reidsville to connect at Kernersville or Winston with the Mooresville extension. The News and Observer brings the matter to surface again in the following:

The Southern Railway has completed its Mocksville-Mooresville branch and within the next two weeks regular schedule trains will be running on it.

This makes the Southern independent of that part of the North Carolina Railroad between Greensboro and Charlotte—the part that has always hitherto been most valuable to the State and absolutely indispensable to the Southern.

It was the fight over the lease question in the last legislature, it has been alleged, that caused the Southern to decide to complete this link of 28 miles. Since the settlement of the lease question, however, the line is worth little for anything other than local traffic but already the Southern officials are contemplating completing the links from Reidsville to Kernersville and from Mt. Mourne to Gastonia. This would then become the through line and the North Carolina Railroad by Greensboro, Salisbury and Charlotte will be only a local line.

Now, mind you, I don't say this will be done, but I do say the management of the Southern is contemplating the advisability of it. The only question now is that of the cost. To complete these two links will take about 45 miles of new road over a country that must be graded at great cost.

On the other hand, to build it will shorten the Southern's through line to Florida some 40 odd miles. This in the near future will mean an hour's shorter ride to Cuba and Porto Rico.

And this, in these days of competition for through business among transportation lines, means much. Then again it is argued the old line will retain all the local business and can be used for slow freight traffic, while the short line can be used for through passenger service, express and perishable freight. Thus giving the Southern between Greensboro and Charlotte, where it most needs it, a double track.

And it is this, I am informed, that is the most powerful reason for building the Reidsville-Kernersville and Mt. Mourne-Gastonia links. If they are not built, then the Southern will be compelled, if the legislature will permit it, to build a double track at least from Salisbury to Greensboro. So enormous has become the freight and passenger business on this section of the main line that one track will not accommodate it. Only one night last week on this track of 40 miles there were 22 trains.

This congestion must be relieved, for it will grow greater from year to year, as the country develops.

The question with the road—and the only question—is whether it will be better to build the two links of forty miles, thereby shortening its line that much, or parallel the 40 miles of track from Greensboro to Salisbury, and to Charlotte possibly.

It is believed that it will choose the former horn of the dilemma. If it chooses the latter this section of road will be the first double track road in the south.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C. ON TOWARD SAN JUAN.

General Brooke Has Covered Two-Thirds of the Distance.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Sept. 5.—Major General John R. Brooke, his staff and escort, have completed two-thirds of their journey across the island toward the city. The march has been like a march through a friendly territory. On Saturday General Brooke stopped at Cayey. Yesterday he reached Caguas twenty miles from here. This afternoon he enters Rio Piedras, one of the aristocratic suburbs of San Juan, where he will establish headquarters.

General Brooke has accepted the hospitality of Captain General Macias who graciously offered him the use of his private residence at Rio Piedras. The column, though small, is imposing and is making a deep impression. As it wound its way over state-ly mountains, covered to their summits with coffee and tobacco plantations, and through broad valleys, General Brooke, with his chief of staff rode at its head. The natives who had news of the coming of the Americans, lined up the roads, their faces showing their pleasure, although there was no demonstrations. At intervals along the way the Spanish soldiers of the Guardia Civil presented arms as our troops passed.

At Cayey and Caguas, the Spanish commanders received General Brooke with marked courtesies and the Alcaldes paid official visits, extending welcome to their towns. At Caguas, where a thousand Spanish regulars are stationed under the command of Colonel Rodriguez, the ceremony was pretentious. The Spanish buglers gave the flourishes in honor of a major general upon our arrival. Horses had been set apart for the accommodation of General Brooke and his staff.

The infantry and cavalry companies camped in the outskirts of the town and were visited by the Spanish soldiers. There was no display whatever of ill feeling. Spaniards and Americans mingled freely, fraternizing and exchanging buttons as souvenirs. Already many of the American soldiers are buttonless.

Spanish flags flew at Cayey and Caguas, but as guests in an enemy's country we showed no colors save the cavalry guidon. Our stalwart soldiers and massive horses cause ceaseless wonder to the natives, accustomed to men of small stature and nimble footed, little ponies.

Gen. Brooke will have arrived here in advance of the other American commissioners, who are expected on Wednesday by the Seneca.

The City of Cadiz, of the Spanish Trans-Atlantic Line, arrived this morning from Coruna, the first direct from Spain to reach here since the termination of hostilities. She carries the Spanish mails, is bound for Havana and will then proceed to New York.

Gen. Brooke upon his arrival at Rio Piedras will be received by Col. Pino, the local commander there.

The sessions of the military commissions, it is understood, will be held in the palace here.

The prices of curios connected with the sojourn of the Spanish prisoners at Seavey's Island, near Portsmouth, N. H., are rapidly rising. Common naval buttons now sell for 50 cents each, hat buttons for 75 cents, and buttons from officers' caps for a dollar. Viceroy and Cristobal Colon buttons bring from four to ten dollars apiece.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

An American soldier in Ponce writes that prices are rather high in Puerto Rico, but not unreasonably so. The campaign hat which I wore and for which I paid $1 in Chattanooga would sell for $3.50, Puerto Rico money, in Ponce. I was wearing a brown canvas shooting coat, for which I paid $1.50 in Jacksonville. I was told the same sum would not even buy the material to make it in Ponce. Ice is quoted at about the same price as in most of our southern cities, where ice is manufactured.

Scientists have demonstrated that the purest air in the cities is found 25 feet above the street surface. This goes to prove that the healthiest apartments are those situated on the third floor.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush-night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

In the year which ended June 30th, 1897, 6437 passengers on the American railways were killed in accidents and 36,731 injured. A new York Times writer has figured that only one out of 2204 of the whole number was killed outright and only one out of 185,115 was injured. With the total mileage as a basis the statistician figures that the traveler with average luck escapes injury until he journeys amount to 4,385,309 miles and not until his score is 55,211,440 miles is it his turn to get killed. Traveling 30 miles a day for 300 days in the year no one need begin to worry until he is 5467 years of age.

MAKES GEN. PANDO SAD

When He Thinks How Easily Cuba Was Given Away.

Gen. Luis Manuel de Pando, who was next to Captain-General Blanco in command of the Spanish forces in Cuba, came ashore yesterday from the steamship Philadelphia, which arrived from Havana on Saturday night. He was accompanied by his aide-de-camp, Leopoldo Bejarans and went to Hotel America. The Spanish General had one trunk and several smaller pieces of baggage. Customs Inspector Johnson had read the published report that Gen. Pando left Cuba with 2,000,000 francs belonging to the Spanish funds at Havana and he made a close search for the money, as a permit must be obtained from the government for the landing of specie, although no revenue duty is charged. The inspector was unable to find so much as a single peseta.

Gen. Pando is under medium height stout, and wears a pointed black beard. He wore an ordinary suit of dark material and a straw hat. There was nothing about him that indicated his military rank. After taking breakfast at the hotel, he drove about the city. He visited Central Park, and on his return took a siesta. Later he said to a Sun reporter, through an interpreter:

"I thank you, gentlemen of the press for the interest you take in my movements, and I am sorry I do not speak English."

He was asked what he thought of the surrender of Santiago by General Toral.

"Torat will be courtmartialled when he returns to Spain for having surrendered," he answered.

"That is the usual routine according to Spanish military law. I do not propose to criticize General Toral, but I have very decided opinions about the surrender. It was uncalled for by military law and because of the condition of the Spanish troops in Cuba. The blame for it does not rest with General Toral, but with the people in Spain."

"What is your opinion of the war as a whole?" was asked.

"What war?" General Pando replied.

"Why, the Spanish-American war."

"There is no war yet," he replied.

"There has been some child's play at soldiering down in Cuba, but it did not develop into sufficient proportions to be called war, as that matter is understood in Europe. War is a serious business conducted on scientific lines where courage, expertness and experience count for much in turning the victory."

"The affair between your soldiers and ours down there might properly be called a travesty on war. I do not wish to convey the idea that I disparage the courage and ability of the American soldier, but I say that the Cuban affair came to a stop before it could be shown what the Spanish soldiers were capable of when opposed to an American army."

"The politicians stopped the affair as they started it. The soldiers were only the poor tools of the politicians of both countries, yours and mine. The soldiers were made fools of and were betrayed. The politicians of my country gave away Cuba and Porto Rico—yes, presented them as a gift, when Spanish soldiers were willing and able to maintain them in their Spanish sovereignty. It makes me sad when I think how easily Cuba was given away. Why, I did not catch the sight of one American soldier's uniform in Cuba, and there are 200,000 other Spanish soldiers in Cuba who did not so much as see an American soldier and were ready to fight to the death to keep Cuba for the mother country. But our politicians wouldn't let us fight."

The general said he was a member of the Spanish cortes and was hurrying home so as to arrive before the opening of parliament.

"In the cortes I will receive a recognition of my services in behalf of my country," he added, "far more satisfactory than the 2,000,000 francs your newspapers accuse me of taking from Cuba. And in the cortes I will tell my people about the way they have been treated by the politicians. Perhaps they will erect a monument to Sagasta. Folly is sometimes commemorated as well as ability."

The general was asked if he thought the Cubans would be able to govern themselves should the government be turned over to them. He said he thought they would in time be able to maintain a respectable government.—N. Y. Sun.

The cruiser Dixie, manned by the Maryland naval reserves, has brought with her from Fort Calmanera, Guantanamo, an old style Spanish mortar which the crew want to present to the city of Baltimore on the occasion of municipal peace celebration, Sept. 12. The mortar weighs 2700 pounds and was cast in 1801 of pieces of bronze brought from Sevilla and other places in Spain.

Carpets and Curtains

We have just received direct from the carpet mills, and have on exhibition in our Carpet Department on second floor, the largest line of Carpets in all grades of Ingrains, Brussels, Velvets and Axminsters that has ever been shown in this city, and we invite your inspection of these lines before you buy.

Remember that we measure your floor and have the carpet cut to fit, made and laid for you without extra charge, thereby saving you the worry of having them sewed, and the risk of a misfit.

Also a fine line of Irish Point and Net Curtains just opened. Call and see them.

HOW THEY DO IN WINSTON.

And the Same Thing Should be Done in Greensboro.

A little 10 year old negro, Earlycoe Wilson, stole a pair of suspenders on last Saturday from J. M. Woodruff & Co. He was arrested, carried to jail and given a good whipping and turned loose.—Winston Journal.

That whipping business needs to be introduced here. Yesterday at noon Officer Weatherly arrested a little boot black for stealing a hat from one of his competitors. He was not large enough to be locked up and the officer turned him loose, but not until he had promised to go home and tell his mother to whip him.

It is needless to say the message was never delivered.

Last night Officer Scott arrested another little coon for throwing across the street. He was locked up, but what can be done with him? He is too small to work on the streets or county roads and staying in jail is no punishment for him at all.

There is a whole drove of these little boot blacks here who are a constant bother to the policemen. They ride on the trains, fight, steal and do everything annoying.

If two or three were severely thrashed and released, the description they would give of their punishment would not be at all inviting to their comrades and we would have a quieter and smaller lot of loafers.

On the Upgrade.

"The business of this country is on a mighty upward movement," said Mr.
J. R. Mendenhall to a Telegram man
this morning. Mr. Mendenhall's Co.,
the Greensboro Sash and Blind Co., is running to its fullest capacity and has all the business it can possibly handle.

And he is right about the business of the country being on the upgrade.
Other business enterprises here are doing their level best to keep up with orders, and the prospects are that the orders will continue to come.
